

NASA Tram Tour

The NASA Tram Tour at Space Center Houston will take you on a journey through NASA's programs, past, present, and future. Take a moment to test your knowledge of the programs that NASA is currently working on and what part you, as a student, play in those programs.

Which of these programs is the current program NASA is using to send humans to space?

- a. Millenium Falcon
- b. Apollo
- c. Space Shuttle

Building 17 at NASA's Johnson Space Center is being used to develop the future program for NASA's exploration of the Moon and Mars. What is the name of this program?

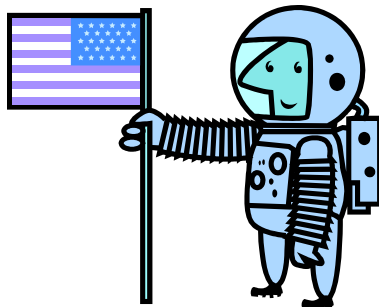

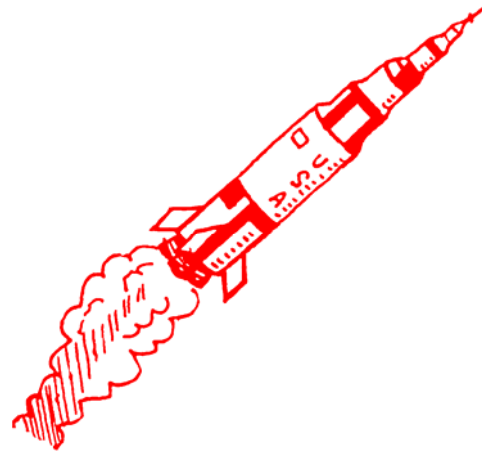

- a. Pioneer to Pluto
- b. Pegasus
- c. Orion

One of the types of rockets at our Rocket Park was used on the Apollo missions to take Astronauts to the Moon. What is the name of this rocket?

- a. The Little Engine That Could
- b. Saturn V
- c. Starship Enterprise

How many missions landed on the Moon during the Apollo program?

- a. 6
- b. 1
- c. 152

When does NASA plan to return to the Moon?

- a. This Year
- b. As early as 2015 and no later than 2020
- c. By 2010